

CENTENARY BIRTH ANNIVERSARY OF DR. BHUPEN HAZARIKA

Date: 8th September, 2026

Time: 1.00 PM

Venue: College Auditorium

Duliajan College observed the centenary birth anniversary of Dr. Bhupen Hazarika on 8th September at the college auditorium through a vibrant cultural programme. The event was jointly organised by IQAC, Music Club, Performing Club, Art and Literary Club, Dance and Drama Club, Sakha Sahitya Sabha, and the Students' Union of Duliajan College. The programme commenced with the opening address by the Principal, Dr. Lok Bikash Gogoi, who highlighted the cultural and artistic contributions of the legendary singer and composer. This was followed by a talk by Dr. Hemanta Das, the academic coordinator of arts and head of Sociology department who offered a glimpse into the richness of Hazarika's music and its significance. Students enriched the programme with musical and dance performances, along with talks reflecting on his life, works, and contribution to Assamese music and film. The celebration provided an opportunity for the college community to remember and appreciate the remarkable legacy of one of Assam's most celebrated cultural icons. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Abhijit Saha.
